

Pisces
December 2011

You may have found yourself to be the center of a great deal of attention in recent weeks, dear Pisces, and this trend does not appear to be changing anytime soon! Community relationships may be clashing with financial commitments and you may find yourself in the middle of the fracas, voicing your opinion!

As December opens and through the 9th, the sun and Mars are clashing. The sun is in your house of leadership, public reputation, and success. With Mars in your marriage sector, your partner is upset or stressed about your level of involvement in a volatile situation. It is also possible that your boss or father figure does not like your choice of partners. If your partnerships are all doing okay, then you might find that a competitor is willing to fight dirty!

December 3rd, 4th, and 5th, Mercury joins the sun in his battle with Mars. Mercury adds a more argumentative energy to the already tough situation.

December 10th plays host to a full moon lunar eclipse at 18 degrees of Gemini in your 4th house of real estate, housing matters, safety and security, retirement circumstances, and coming home sector. This is a good time for finally completing a home-related project you have been working on. You could finish a redecorating, landscaping, home-improvement, or refinancing project. You could buy or sell a house. Since this is also the area of the zodiac that governs parents, you could say goodbye to a parent or a child, due to a move to another location. You could end a negative relationship with a parent or child by agreeing to treat each other more kindly. Under this influence there is a stronger than normal need to observe safety practices. Be sure to unplug irons, Christmas lights, shut off the stove and other electronics when you leave. Blow out candles. Move things out of the way and off stairs to avoid falls. Accidents and injuries are possible at this time. Eclipses often have a profound effect on us. They can be the catalyst to change in our lives or they can work on a subtler level, and it can be a full lunar cycle before we begin to see the changes brought on by the eclipse. Please dear Pisces, exercise caution and avoid accidents under this eclipse energy!

From December 11th through the 16th, Mercury and Uranus are creating a smart, funny, and charming energy for everyone to use. Mercury is in your success and leadership sector. Uranus is still in your house of personal wealth and self-worth. This is a good time to work hard, take leadership roles, apply for job promotions, or increase your revenues through professional activities. Since Mercury rules computers and Uranus rules the internet, you could find internet based business activities are profitable at this time. You might want to focus on internet marketing, and online promotions, if not for yourself then maybe for your daughter who runs an internet based business!

Jupiter and Saturn begin to squabble from December 11th through February 6th, dear Pisces. Jupiter has been traveling backwards through your business and communications sector. Saturn is in your trust, joint finances, spouse's income, and profit sharing sector. The opposition is between your business and your profits, or between your community and your trust. This is not a good time for buying on credit. If you work in sales industries, you could find that it is difficult to get your customers approved for loans. Careers involving transportation, automotive, computers, sales, writing, community outreach, or telecommunications are likely to suffer lower than expected profits at this time. You could also find that neighbors, or local community members are creating financial trust issues. They might be lying to you or they might just be mistaken about what it is they think they are offering to you. Either way, do not get yourself involved in commercial or financial agreements at this time. This is a bad time to buy or sell a car. It is also possible that you are watching a relative go through horrible trust issues or infidelity and there is not much you can do to help them, dear Pisces.

From December 16th through the 20th, Venus is arguing with Saturn. Venus is in your friends, professional associations and internet sector; while Saturn is still in your trust, fidelity, and joint assets sector. You could be arguing with a friend, or internet entity over your financial goals. Maybe your finances keep you from being able to socialize and goof off with friends as much as you might like. Perhaps a friend or colleague is trying to get you involved in a get rich quick scheme. This is a bad time for financial agreements, contracts, or plans involving these friends, colleagues or internet providers. You should be extremely careful over the new few days whenever you are conducting financial transactions online as identity theft is an ever present problem. Also, dear Pisces, be leery of the idea of turning a friendship into a romantic relationship, or watch out for a friend trying to steal your lover away from you!

Neptune and Jupiter begin to play nice for your benefit from December 16th through January 20th. Neptune is already sending happy little vibes to Saturn and Jupiter is opposing Saturn. Now with Neptune and Jupiter teaming up together, we see your emotional or charitable approach towards the situation helping to smooth things over. That does not mean that you should be gullible and believe everything you hear, but that having a kind and compassionate heart can help you to at least not feel angry and depressed about the challenges you are facing. It is also possible that you are able to mediate and help your neighbor, or local community member to get through whatever commercial, or financial trust issues they might be dealing with. You could also find that bureaucrats are actually helpful in this situation. For example, if a used car dealer is cheating you on a car loan, you could go to the local government agency in charge of these types of things and they can help you get it ironed out.

From December 17th through the 21st, the sun and Saturn are getting along quite nicely. The sun is in your success and leadership sector, while Saturn is in your joint ventures, investments and stocks, sector. This is an excellent time for analyzing, and planning your professional and financial goals. It is a good time for negotiating non-salary forms of financial compensation. You could also find that this is a good time for earning your boss's trust by helping him or her to come up with ideas that will help to increase profits.

December 19th through the 25th sees the sun stepping into a location where he is able to help Neptune create peace between Jupiter and Saturn. Jupiter and Saturn are still in opposition concerning profits versus commerce, commitments versus fidelity, gossip versus trust. However, Neptune is in your emotional, charitable, bureaucratic, and secrets sector trying to help smooth things over and now the sun is in your friends, teamwork, and internet sector adding assistance. Perhaps a web hosting company is overcharging you and causing a huge financial and commercial drama for your business, but a different web hosting company is helping you to resolve your issues. Or one committee member is making the contract negotiations tougher than they need to be and a different one is helping you to find common ground so that things can be figured out in a reasonable manner. With the sun's location in this dynamic, it could be you playing the role of good guy that is helping to bring calm, compassion, and harmony into the dynamic. If it is not you personally, it is someone to whom you relate.

December 24th plays host to a new moon in your friends, professional associations, group activities, and internet sector. New moons are for fresh starts and new beginnings new moons in this area of the zodiac chart encourage us to join clubs, committees, online groups, and professional associations. This is also a good time to make new friends, launch websites, begin working on networking projects, or internet activities. This new moon is being influenced by the positive energies involving Saturn, Neptune, and Jupiter. You could find that your local community, neighbors, commercial activities, romantic and financial trust issues, social life, or sense of peace and harmony in your life are all improved by this new moon in your social life. For example, you could solve a lot of your professional, financial, and commercial issues by changing to a different web hosting company or by using a different webmaster. Perhaps a new friend helps you to see that your lover is not cheating and that helps you finally make a commitment to them. This new moon energy moves you forward in a positive way, dear Pisces.

The year ends on a positive note with the sun and Pluto traveling as partners through your friends, committees, professional associations, group activities, and internet sector. Together, they bring passion, enthusiasm, optimism, tenacity, profits, honesty, and loyalty into your friendships.

Dear Pisces, I wish you a Merry, Merry Christmas and the happiest of holidays. My wish for you is a deep and abiding joy in the coming year. Know that you are loved.
